THE MULTI-RACIAL EXPERIMENT

Immigration to Britain from the Black Commonwealth began in the late fifties and early sixties. The immigrants, mainly from the West Indies, were needed by the "Mother" country because of a shortage of unskilled labour. "They will enrich our culture, and inject some sunshine into our lives" we were told . . .

In the early seventies Indians and Pakistanis flooded into Britain, followed by Asians from Uganda, expelled by Idi Amin for taking over the business life of his country.

We were told then, "they will benefit Britain by bringing with them their good business sense, their strong sense of family, their discipline and honesty". Our masters then, as now lied to us . . . Our society has seen the introduction of drugs and new words like mugging and steaming have entered our language. Some parts of our towns have become no go areas to even the Police . . . The Multi-racial experiment has brought . . . nothing but suffering.

. . . A Multi-racial gang 250 strong attacked a husband, wife, and two children beating them to the ground and robbing them in the Shepherds Bush area of London. Police believe that up to a dozen more people were attacked . . .

. . . Multi-cultural brainwashing led to the death of Ahmed Ullah, a 13 year old boy, stabbed to death in a Manchester school playground . . .

. . . Asian businessmen, Harkisham Chattaram, Benars Ali and Nita Kumar were found guilty of smuggling eight kilos of Heroin, worth in excess of £1 million into Britain . . .

. . . The West Indian cultural event the Notting Hill Carnival, saw 250 arrests, 1000 reported crimes and a murder, in 1987 . . .

. . . A West Indian "community leader" from West London, arrested for drug offences . . .

. . . A 23 year old teacher, Suresh Ahuja was jailed for four years for a sex attack on an eleven year old girl in Croydon Surrey . . .

. . . Community Leader . . . Kuomba Balogun, was jailed for six months for possessing two shotgun cartridges and assaulting a police officer in Bristol . . .

. . . A gang of mainly Black Youths attack and murder P.C. Keith Blakelock in a riot on the Broadwater Farm Estate in London . . .

To overcome the resentment felt by the indigenous population towards the newcomers The Race Relations Industry was established.

Our children are brainwashed in schools anti-racist studies are introduced, the experiment has failed . . .

The immigrants too are victims of the experiment that went wrong, they were promised good housing, plenty of jobs, but instead face poverty, the erosion of their own racial identity and customs . . .

It is our masters who seek to destroy our separate races and cultures, who wish to turn us all into slaves of a multi-racial, multi-cultural state . . . fight them destroy them and their power before it's too late, don't sit there . . . be active . . .

Editorial

I have heard some sneers from fellow Nationalists, over the low vote recieved by Flag Group NF candidate, Mrs Tina Wingfield, in the recent Epping bye election.

The Front took a brave decision to "test the water" at Epping, a renown Tory stronghold, and their supporters put in a great deal of hard work. But how sad it was to see the other NF faction actually distributing leaflets seeking to persuade Epping residents NOT TO VOTE ???
...OUR ENEMIES MUST HAVE LOVED IT...

A rumour circulating amongst Nationalists in London, is that the NF Flag Group, and the British National Party, will try again in the New Year to form some kind of alliance.

I hope that there is some truth in this rumour, for any steps towards Nationalist Unity must be welcomed Nationalist Alliances DO WORK, this has been proved in both Flanders and South Africa, where such alliances have gained electoral victories.

Our enemy is large and powerfull, and it will take a large powerfull Nationalist Organisation to defeat them....

There has been some criticism over the decision by the "Green Faction" N.F. to change from more traditional Nationalist thinking, to what the NF now call "The Third Position".

This involves the examining and sometimes promoting the ideas of non-whites, such as the black American, Louis Farrakhan, and Colonel Gaddafi of Libya.

Certainly, this is new ground for us Nationalists, and I don't presume to try and judge whether or not it is the way to victory, only time will tell that, but, don't let us Nationalists ever be afraid to break new ground, after all, just a few years ago, most Nationalist Parties in this country still promoted the idea that these Islands of ours were all that mattered, and Europe should be ignored. Thankfully, this "Wogs begin at Calais" syndrome has now been discarded for a New European Outlook, with benefits for all.

Finally, I have not read the works of Louis Farrakhan, but the Zionist press describe them as "the works of a rabid anti-zionist", so he can't be all bad.

KINNOCK TREATED TO EXHIBITION OF AFRICAN "CIVIL RIGHTS"

Neil Kinnock, spent ten days touring the "frontline states" bordering South Africa. Everywhere he went he praised their fight against the "totalitarian" regime in South Africa.

In Zambia, he met with representatives of the ANC Terrorist Organisation. In Mozambique, he praised the Marxist government's fight against the anti communist Renamo guerrillas, and in the one party state of Zimbabwe he was arrested!

At last, Kinnock was able to see "civil rights" in a real totalitarian state!

As his plane made an unscheduled landing at Mutare airbase, instead of Harare, poor Neil, his wife Glenys, and a party of journalists were arrested by a gang of machine gun toting soldiers, and bundled into a 12 foot square room. When eventually freed, he received an apology from the marxist leader of Zimbabwe, President Mugabe, for this 'misunderstanding', but even the three journalists who did fly to the correct airbase had been arrested and detained...

Also on a tour of Black Africa, was the Pope, who also visited the "frontline states". He tried persuading local Black leaders not to marry several wives at a time, and to stop butchering political opponents, to behave like "Christians". His Holiness vowed to avoid South Africa, the most Christian of countries, because he opposed its political policies... but the Gods intervened! Bad weather forced the Papal plane to land in "Facist" South Africa. Was it a worried Pope who alighted from the plane?.. Would he be arrested by armed soldiers like Mr Kinnock? Would he be beaten, tortured and thrown into prison by these White Africans who are condemned by the "Free World Media"?

As in any civilised country, he was warmly greeted by the South African Foreign minister, and a senior representative of the church, who took him not to jail, but for an excellent meal. He was provided with transport to continue his journey.

Meanwhile, the independent kingdom of Lesotho had a crisis. The Pope was on his way, but several black Basotho gunmen had hijacked a bus full of nuns, and were holding them as hostages. Help arrived in the shape of several well armed South African White Commandos, who stormed the bus, freed the nuns, and killed all but one of the hijackers. The survivor, slightly wounded, was handed over to the Lesotho police.

Twenty hours later, his body was lying in the mortuary of Lesotho's Queen Elizabeth hospital...

Journalists viewing the body, reported that he had several gaping wounds in the throat, and appeared to have been badly beaten. The local Police chief confirmed that the man had died "under interrogation".

"FREEDOM OF SPEECH"

The Magna Carta of 1215 gave the British People both the right to a fair trial, and the right to Freedom of Speech. These rights were preserved until 1936, when we saw, under the Public Order Act, Mosleys Patriotic Blackshirts banned from marching in our streets, because of violence by foreign inspired Red Mobs.

Three years later, in 1939, this country was pushed into the Second Great European Civil War. Mosley, who had fought against the hate campaign directed at our European brothers, now directed his members that they must put aside their political beliefs, and go to war for Britain.

Thousands did just that, in fact, the first two British casualties of the war, Ken Day and George Brocking, were both members of Mosley's British Union, both were killed in Action on Sept 4th 1939.

Early in 1940, we saw the introduction of Defence Regulation 18b, this gave the government the right to detain "persons of Hostile Origin, or Associations". Arrest without charge, Detention without Trial.

This regulation was introduced by the Labour Home Secretary, Herbert Morrison. Morrison had been a conscientious objector in the 1914-8 war, and whilst European Brothers fought and died in the mud of Flanders, Morrison was safely out of the way, working on a farm!, but into his 18b net, he drew many brave veterans of that terrible conflict.

Sir Oswald Mosley, wounded in that war, former Director of British Naval Intelligence, Sir Barry Domville, Air Commodore Oddie and Captain A.H.M. Ramsey, all were arrested under 18b.

Altogether, 753 Patriotic members of British Union were arrested and imprisoned. Some went to Brixton Prison, some to the infamous Walton Jail, others were sent to Concentration Camps at York, Ascot and Peel on the Isle of Man.

Incredibly, in May 1940, two British Union members volunteered to join the expedition to rescue our troops from the beaches of Dunkirk, on their return they were arrested and sent to Walton Jail.

The next major loss of Freedom came in the early 1960's, when British Nationalist, Colin Jordan, was arrested following a speech to the British People in Trafalgar Square, a speech that urged those British People to guard their own freedoms!

In the mid sixties, we saw the introduction of the Race Relations Act, this further erosion of free speech claimed people such as Robert Relf, Joe Pierce, and John Tyndall, all victims in the fight for freedom! The act was again extended in 1976, Nationalists were now judged to be Guilty, unless they could prove their innocence!

Now in the 1980's, we see once again increases in the powers of the Public Order Act. Our Freedom of Speech, Our Freedom of Assembly, Our Freedom to March, Our Freedom to Demonstrate, all have been curtailed by our masters.

The media have accused some sections of the Nationalist Community of "going Underground", but with proposals from powerful organisations like the Board of Jewish Deputies, for even tougher restrictions on our rights, what other options will be left? Soon we will lose the right to believe!

The only legal way to fight our masters is with Unity, we are the chosen ones!, we must unite and fight, Together, and Only Together, can we defeat the forces of evil . .

The future of our political movement, the future of our Race, Our Nation and its freedoms depend on you! Unite and fight for freedom! . . .

BRITISH TAXPAYERS MONEY GIVEN TO MARXIST DICTATORS

As interest rates rise once again, millions of British families struggle to make ends meet. Hundreds more face losing their homes because of high mortgage rates. Hospitals waiting lists grow as the necessary funds are denied them, and our old people face a cold grim winter as prices of food and fuel rise yet again. The British people must feel that our country is in dire straits, but, despite our balance of payments deficit, despite the Tories cry of "Economise" the British government continues to give our money away to Marxist dictators in Black Africa.

The one party, marxist state of Zambia, is "governed" by Kenneth Kaunda, a marxist dictator of the old school. While his people starve, he rides around in brand new Mercedes cars. He spends a great deal of his time on his duties as chairman of "the front line states", and the head of the Organisation of African Unity, a marxist front, that gives cover to ANC terrorists. This despot has just been given thirty million pounds of our money in overseas aid . .

Another recipient of your generosity has been Mozambique, another thirty million of your money has been given as a "No Strings" aid package in addition to the military aid already provided. British army instructors are already training the Marxist government troops, in an effort to defeat the anti communist Renamo guerrillas which control 70% of the country, and have the popular support of the people.

Our masters have chosen to forget, that when Mozambique won its independence from Portugal, hundreds of White Portuguese soldiers and civilians were taken prisoner, most of these have never been seen again. Some years ago, eye-witness reports from Mozambique told of White Women captives being used as forced labour in the fields. They were guarded by marxist soldiers who from time to time dragged them into the bush and raped them. The soldiers lust satisfied, the women were beaten, and then put back to work.

No outcry was heard from Britain, or indeed any part of the "free Western World", and now to add to our shame, we are paying and training their tormentors . . .

DIXMUIDE 88

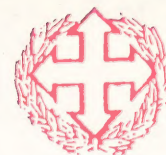

The date for this gathering of European Nationalists had been changed this year, in the hope of attracting even more people than usual, but sadly, numbers seemed to be down again. Much of the blame for this, must be placed at the door of the Belgian State Police, who, on the orders of the local Mayor, continued to harrass the Nationalists that did make this Pilgrimage to the "Izjer", to pay their respects to the European dead of two World Wars.

Despite Police harrassment several old Comrades did make the effort, and it was nice to sit and discuss plans for the future of our European Movement.

Former President of the V.M.O., Albert Eriksonn, made an appearance, looking fit and well, as did several members of that brave Nationalist family the Spinnewijns. With people of this calibre still in the struggle, victory is assured.

LEAGUE OF ST. GEORGE.

VIEWPOINT

The Christian Church seems most upset over a new film on the life of their founder titled, "The Last Temptation of Christ".

In the United States, Christians have been picketing the studios of Universal Pictures, whose parent company MCA Ltd. is headed by Mr Lew Wasserman, who is Jewish. There have been many anti-semitic demonstrations against the film's producers, and the world famous Italian film director Franco Zeffirelli was quoted as saying "the film was the work of that Los Angeles Jewish cultural scum always waiting to strike against the Christian World". Mr Zeffirelli has denied saying this.

The Archbishop of New York has said the film is inaccurate, "there is not one shred of evidence nor any hint that our Lord behaved like that".

In Britain there have been calls for the film to be banned. Failing that, church leaders have called for a boycott. They claim that the film is a "grotesque parody of the truth"

Do you remember when the film "Holocaust" was being shown, do you remember the series "Shoah"? Both of these were a "grotesque parody of the Truth" neither of them showed "one shred of evidence nor any hint" of a deliberate policy of genocide by the German Nationalist Government . . . did you hear the Christian Churchmen complaining about that

Harvey Michael Ross is a crook. 700 people invested their money in Mr Ross's investment company, Mr Ross then stole £1.5 million of the people's money and fled to Israel, then he ran to Uruguay and was eventually arrested and returned to Britain for trial. At the trial, Mr Ross admitted 25 offences, and asked for a further 143 similar offences to be taken into consideration, Mr Ross was sentenced to 14 years imprisonment.

Mr Ross is now a guest at Armley jail in Leeds and has demanded special Kosher food arrangements and a prayer room in the prison, although he already gets the prison Kosher diet he says he cannot eat it. Mr Ross says "I am an orthodox Jew, it could be that I am in the last few weeks of my life. I am slowly starving to death" . . . I bet I know 700 people who couldn't give a damn . . .

THE GREAT HOLOCAUST CONFERENCE

1988 saw the arrival in Britain of the "Holocaust" circus. More than 250 "holocaust experts" were invited to conferences held in London and Oxford. No Historical Revisionists were invited, for this was not to be a debate on the issue, but merely "preaching to the Converted".

The event was publicised by a fantastic poster of Adolf Hitler, with the slogan "If you forget, he'll be back", also prominently displayed was the title of the conference, "Remembering for the Future".

As one would expect, the tales of suffering, gassings, beatings etc took up most of the time, although there were warnings that with the "upsurge of Nationalist feelings in Europe" people must be on their guard, to prevent "another Holocaust taking place".

However there were one or two tales that were of interest, like the one that said that Himmler was made responsible for the programme of "genocide", and when he appointed a senior SS Officer to carry out the work, the officer refused unless he got a written order from Adolf Hitler authorising it, the officer was told that this would not be possible.

The Bishops of the Anglican Church have now decided that terrorism is not evil, not to be condemned, if it is carried out within South Africa. At their Lambeth conference the bishops resolved that "armed struggle was to be understood". In just a few short sentences, the bishops have legitimised the bombings, burnings and beatings that are carried out by the communist led ANC in South Africa. Not only have they made these acts of terror legitimate, in some misguided way, they seem to have encouraged them . . . but . . . if the Anglican churches and their Bishops enter the World of Politics and Terrorism, then they should not be surprised if supporters of South Africa take political action against the Anglican churches . . . should they???

Whilst Christian Churchmen busy themselves boycotting films that they disagree with, and accept resolutions to legitimise terrorism, who is looking after the spiritual needs of the masses? What sort of people are running the churches? . . Well . . I can tell you what sort of people the Reverend Dennis Allison vicar of St Peter and Paul in Portsmouth and the Reverend James Bent of St James's in Liverpool, they are perverts and scum . . for the two vicars and their choirmaster chum, Stuart Eager plus two other friends have been jailed for indecent assaults on a boy of 12, and another of just 7 . . . between them they were found guilty of indecent assault, taking indecent photographs, gross indecency and buggery . . What sort of god do these "Christians" worship ?????

Other delegates agreed that during the period between 1941 and 1944, as little news as possible was given to the German public about the "extermination camps", it was said that "Euphemisms were used, to deceive both the victims, and the German people".

The conference was organised by Dr Elizabeth Maxwell, the wife of the newspaper owner Capt'n Bob Maxwell.

Capt'n Bob, was reputed to be sponsoring the conference expenses, to the tune of three million pounds, and of course was invited to make a speech.

The conference ended with warnings about the future, the condemning of Historical Revisionists who denied the "holocaust" as being guilty of spreading "Jew hatred on an unprecedented level" . .

At the end of the conference, Capt'n Bob was given an award by the Zionist organisation B'nai B'rith, for his supportive role in youth work, and the "Holocaust"

FOOTNOTE: Capt'n Bob, who has made a considerable fortune in Britain, was honoured by the "State of Israel Bonds", for investing two million pounds with them

Respected Historical Revisionist Mr Henri Rocques has lost his appeal banning him from entering Switzerland. Since writing his thesis claiming that the holocaust was a myth, Mr Rocques has had his PhD cancelled by Nantes University.

The Swiss government will finally bow to international pressure, and introduce "anti racist" legislation in the new year.

Canada

Alberta

Jim Keegstra, former teacher, and one time Mayor of Eckville, has won his appeal against his conviction of a breach of anti-racist laws. Keegstra taught pupils at High School that the holocaust was a myth, and there had been an international Jewish conspiracy to promote the lie.

Ontario

The Ontario appeal court decision to reject the appeal of Don Andrews, leader of the Western Guard Party, against conviction on the same charges that Keegstra was acquitted on. Don Andrews now plans to appeal to the Alberta courts for Justice.

Toronto

Mr Imre Finta aged 77, has been arrested and charged with "Crimes against Humanity". The charges relate to allegations of brutality to Jewish prisoners when Mr Finta was a police captain in his native Hungary during the Second World War. Mr Finta will be defended by Doug Christie, who is also the legal representative for Ernst Zundel.

Austria

A survey carried out in June, has revealed that 47% of those asked, thought that pre-war National Socialism was not bad for Austria, a further 2% thought it was "positive".

Peter-Joseph Naumann, a former executive member of the NPD's Youth Wing, has been arrested and charged with blowing up two T.V. transmitters, in an attempt to prevent them showing the anti German programmes "Shoah" and the "Final Solution".

In Nuremburg, eighty-two year old Wilhelm Wagner, has been put on trial accused of murdering two prisoners in Poland in 1942.

The Lower Saxony branch of the German Labour Party (SPD) have called for a ban on the Nationalist Free German Workers Party (FAP). The Patriotic FAP recently held a large rally in Kassel, the guest speaker was Michael Kuehnen.

South Africa

Three thousand people attended a celebration rally to mark the 15th anniversary of the founding of the A.W.B. (Afrikaner Weerstandsbeweging), in Bapsfontein recently. The movement's leader, Eugene Terreblanche talked of his "dream for the White people of South Africa". The AWB-Conservative election alliance has seen the first real challenge to the ruling National Party for many years.

France

An international arrest warrant has been issued in France for the arrest of Alois Brunner, a former SS Comrade of the late Adolf Eichmann. Herr Brunner now lives in Syria, and is not expected to surrender himself. In 1985 he was interviewed about the alleged "holocaust", he denounced it as a lie, and said that he had served his country with Honour, "and would do it all again" . . .

RING CONGRESS: LEADER ARRESTED

The second annual congress of the "Ring" took place in the ancient Flemish town of Kortrijk over the August bank holiday.

Belgian State Police were much in evidence, and did their utmost to prevent Nationalists getting in to this invitation only meeting.

Over 200 Nationalists were either turned away from the meeting, or arrested.

However, about 180 delegates did manage entry to the meeting, and were addressed by "Ring" organiser Werner van Steen. Mr Van Steen is also the leader of the V.M.O. in Flanders.

In his address, he called for a European wide resistance movement, to counter the propaganda of the race traitors that presently hold Europe in their grip. The next speaker, was from the French P.F.N.E., and he outlined the policies and plans of his organisation, and warned Patriots not to be misled by the "Kosher" Nationalism of the Front National.

A British speaker, Gus Macleod, spoke of the need to re-establish European pride, and the creative genius of our White Race.

Mr Van Steen closed the meeting, and was then arrested by the State Police for an alleged breach of a probation order, placed on him for a previous public order offence.

The Evil Good Men Do

by Jeffrey Hamm, Forward by Diana Mosley

Hardback Price £10.50 inc. P & P.

Available from Steven Books, 10 Lincoln Way, Enfield, Middx. EN1 1TE

Jeffrey Hamm, the stalwart follower and proponent of the ideas of Sir Oswald Mosley has published his second book.

His previous work "Action Replay" was a success. Public library borrowing records as well as sales demonstrate this. We wish him equal success with "The Evil Good Men Do". It is well written and interesting to read. It is a perfect introduction for those unfamiliar with the usual jargon and rather insular attitudes of many radical books. The book is an analysis of what the author considers vital periods in the history of Britain during this century. Periods when Britain had to make decisions of momentous importance. Issues, each one of which takes up a separate chapter in the book, deal, for example with, World War II, Ireland, Europe, Immigration and Race, India, South Africa and others. Hamm discusses them in detail. The history, political background and options available, and shows how on each vital and crucial decision, the government of the day, be it Conservative or Labour took exactly the wrong turn. So convincing is this book that it could well be sub-titled "Steps in the Wrong Direction". The author spares no punches in showing the results of 80 years of blunder and incompetence.

The Eleventh Hour

by John Tyndall

Price £10.80 incl. P & P

Available from Steven Books, 10 Lincoln Way, Enfield, Middx. EN1 1TE

The "Eleventh Hour" by John Tyndall was written during the author's imprisonment. An incarceration one might say, due solely to an exercise of our much vaunted "free speech". A disgraceful act of political persecution that shames the legal profession and the media which did nothing to stop it.

However, out of repression comes some good. John Tyndall's ideas and feelings are put down in concise and clear fashion. Best known for his leadership of the National Front in the 1970's he now leads the British National Party and still edits "Spearhead", its monthly journal.

Every aspect of current politics are covered as well as some historical aspects of the issues involved.

John Tyndall is not of the same mind as Jeffrey Hamm. They disagree fundamentally about Ireland and Europe. Yet both are motivated in their desire to put Britain first and to do what they consider to be in her best interests. It must never be forgotten that the bulk of the British Establishment today do not even understand the concept.

Opponents of nationalist politics (either of the British or European variety) do not belong spiritually with the people. When they incline to any world view it will almost always be one that is against the British interest. Both these books explain and underline this fundamental factor. Both books offer alternatives, and both their motives in all that they say are clear. They stand for Britain, her people and future progress and wellbeing.

WHEN ALL OTHERS PROVE UNFAITHFUL THEN WE WILL STILL BE TRUE
